Colgate (13-9, PL 4-5) Plays Host To Holy Cross;
Raiders Looking To Even Patriot League Record

THE MATCHUP

The Colgate University basketball team (13-9 overall, 4-5 Patriot League) will be looking to even its record in Patriot League play, when the Raiders host Holy Cross College (12-12, 6-3 PL) Saturday afternoon on “Adonal Foyle Day” at Cotterell Court. Tip-off is 3:15 p.m.

Foyle, who played for the Raiders between 1995-97, will have his number 31 retired in a pre-game ceremony immediately following the conclusion of the women’s game (approximately 2:45).

The Raiders have won four of their last five games including an 84-52 win over Lehigh on Wednesday night. Colgate’s lone setback came against first place American University. Holy Cross has (continued on next page)

COLGATE TO RETIRE ADONAL FOYLE’S NUMBER

Adonal Foyle will become the fourth player in Colgate history to have his basketball number retired during a pre-game ceremony Saturday before the Holy Cross game. Foyle played three seasons with the Raiders between 1995-97. He led Colgate to its only two appearances ever in the NCAA Tournament while earning second team All-America honors by U.S. Basketball Writers Association and third team All-America by Associated Press in 1997.

Foyle finished his collegiate career as Colgate’s second all-time leading scorer with 1,776 points and leading rebounder with 1,103. The two-time Patriot League Player of the Year is the NCAA all-time blocked shot leader with 492.

In his last season with the Raiders, Foyle was a finalist for The John R. Wooden and USBWA Player of the Year honors. He was the eighth pick overall in the 1997 NBA draft by the Golden State Warriors. He is currently playing his fifth season in the NBA.

Foyle was also a top-notch student-athlete earning first team University-Division GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America honors in 1997.

won four straight games to move into second place in the Patriot League standings.

This is the 51st meeting between Colgate and Holy Cross with the Crusaders leading the overall series, 38-12. Earlier this season, the Raiders snapped a two-game losing streak to the Crusaders with a 46-42 win at Holy Cross' Hart Center. Holy Cross has won its last two appearances at Cotterell Court.

Sophomore Mark Linebaugh has been Colgate's leading scorer in the last four outings. He has pounded home 79 points (19.7 per game) while making 27-of-46 shots from the field (58.7%). Linebaugh tallied 21 points against Binghamton, came back with 27 against Army, 17 at American and 14 vs. Lehigh.

Senior Pat Campolieta, the first player in school history to rank in the Top 10 in career scoring (1,539), rebounding (654), assists (227) and steals (177), continues to lead Colgate in scoring and rebounding. He is averaging 15.3 points per game and 7.2 caroms per outing, which is good for third place in Patriot League scoring and second in rebounding.

Campolieta is currently fifth in career scoring and eighth in rebounding for the Raiders.

Linebaugh, the only Colgate player to post back-to-back 20-plus scoring games this season, is second in scoring with 13.2 points per game, while Howard Blue is third with 11.2 points per game. Tim Sullivan, who has returned to the lineup after missing two games with a sprained ankle, is averaging 9.0 ppg and Dave Hardy 8.4 ppg.

Ryan Serravalle is Holy Cross' leading scorer with 12.4 points per game followed closely by Tim Szatko with 12.1. They are followed in the scoring column by Brian Wilson (9.4). The Crusaders' leading rebounder is Szatko with 6.1 caroms per outing.

RADIO COVERAGE

Station WKXZ (93.9/99.3 FM), Norwich, N.Y., will carry the Colgate-Holy Cross game live from Cotterell Court. All radio broadcasts can also be heard on the Internet at http://athletics.colgate.edu

STATS OF THE GAME

Sophomore Howard Blue needs two points to reach 500 points in his career.

Colgate needs one win to equal to most wins in a season under head coach Emmett Davis. He had 14 wins in his first season with the Raiders (1998-99).

LAST TIME VS. HOLY CROSS
(Worcester, MA - Jan. 16, 2002) - Senior forward Pat Campolieta had his third double-double of the season with 16 points and 10 rebounds to lead Colgate to a 46-42 upset win over Holy Cross College at the Hart Center.

Colgate snapped a three-game losing streak with the win over the Crusaders. Holy Cross dropped only its second home game at the Hart Center in its last 13 outings.

Other top scorers for Colgate were freshman Keith Williams and sophomore Howard Blue with eight points apiece. Mark Linebaugh added seven points for the Raiders and Tim Sullivan netted six points.

Pat Whearty led the Crusaders with 12 points and Ryan Serravalle netted 10. Holy Cross took an early 17-9 lead over the Raiders, before Colgate scored nine straight points to move in front 18-17. Williams scored the last seven points in the run for the Raiders.

Colgate’s lead was short-lived as the Crusaders moved in front at halftime, 24-20.

The Raiders opened the second half with nine straight points for a 29-24 advantage. Then Tim Szatko scored and Serravalle converted a 3-pointer for Holy Cross to make it 29-29 with 12 minutes to go. Blue scored back-to-back baskets inside igniting a 10-2 run. A Campolieta 3-point goal capped the surge, giving Colgate a 39-31 lead with eight minutes left. They led by as many as eight points, 41-33, with 6:37 left. The closest the Crusaders came was 44-42 with 2:18 remaining.

COLGATE’S LAST OUTING
(Washington, D.C. - Feb. 2, 2002) - Howard Blue and Mark Linebaugh scored 14 points apiece as Colgate rolled to an 84-52 win over Lehigh in a Patriot League contest at Cotterell Court.

The victory was the Raiders’ 11 straight over the Mountain Hawks on Colgate’s home court.

Pat Campolieta added 12 points and a game-high nine rebounds to the Colgate attack and Dave Hardy chipped in 11 points. Matt Logie led the Mountain Hawks with 11 points.

In the first half, Colgate was leading 13-11 with 13:49 remaining before going on a six-point run to take control of the contest. The Raiders extended their advantage to 13 points before settling for a 38-26 halftime lead.

Colgate led by as many as 34 points late in the game after the Raiders emptied the bench with over five minutes remaining.

Lehigh shot only 37 percent from the field, while Colgate hit on 49 percent. The Raiders were 23-of-31 from the charity stripe, while the Mountain Hawks made only 15-of-27 for 55 percent.

Colgate outrebounded Lehigh 40-33 led by Campolieta while Blue and Keith Williams added six apiece. For Williams it was a career-high.

COLGATE HEAD COACH
Colgate head coach Emmett Davis is in his fourth season with the Raiders. He has posted an overall mark of 53-54. His 53 victories is the second highest total by a Colgate coach in the first four years with the Raiders. Davis is 5-3 against Holy Cross.

COLGATE IN THE PATRIOT LEAGUE
The Raiders are the highest scoring team in the Patriot League averaging 73.5 points per game. They also lead the league in scoring margin (+3.8), turnover margin (2.05) and assist/turnover ratio (1.01).

In other categories, Colgate is fifth in scoring defense (69.8), sixth in free throw percentage (.707), second in field goal percentage (.460), seventh in three-point field goal percentage (.326), third in rebounding (34.7), third in assists (13.64) and seventh in steals (7.14).

BROOKLYN, N.Y.-- Pat Campolieta scored 24 points and Howard Blue added 20 points to lead six Colgate players in double figures as the Raiders rolled to a 99-87 win over Long Island University in the season opener.

The contest swung back-and-forth in the first half with neither team holding more than a five-point advantage. JaJa Bey was hot for LIU early, scoring 11 of his 20 points in the opening 20 minutes. Blue led Colgate in the first half with 13 of his 20 points.

The second half remained tight with five ties and three lead changes. With Colgate holding an 80-79 edge with 4:32 left to play, the Raiders went on a 19-8 run to close the contest. Blue, Mark Linebaugh and Tim Sullivan tallied four points apiece in the spurt.

Campolieta finished with his ninth career double-double as he added 10 rebounds to his offensive output. Linebaugh finished with 15 points and nine rebounds and Sullivan registered 13 points and six caroms.

Colgate converted 39-of-44 (89 percent) from the foul line and outrebounded the Blackbirds, 48-30.

HAMILTON, N.Y. -- Kodiak Yazzie’s jumper at the buzzer lifted Northern Arizona to a 78-77 double overtime victory over Colgate in a non-conference game at Cotterell Court.

Colgate had taken a 77-76 lead with 2.8 seconds remaining on Mark Linebaugh’s layup. But after a time-out, Northern Arizona threw the ball over the length of the floor where Yazzie picked up the loose ball and fired home the winner from 15-feet.

Brian McHugh with 25 points and Howard Blue with 19 apiece, while Pat Campolieta added 12 and Howard Blue 11.

The Raiders sent the game into overtime on Hardy’s two free throws with 4.4 seconds left in regulation, and extended the contest to a second overtime, when Linebaugh nailed a three-pointer with 8.3 seconds left in the first overtime.

Campolieta and Blue finished with nine rebounds each for Colgate, as the Raiders outrebounded Northern Arizona, 37-33.

HAMILTON, N.Y. -- Pat Campolieta scored 16 points and grabbed nine rebounds as Colgate defeated Oral Roberts, 80-68, in a non-conference game.

Also in double figures for the Raiders were Dave Hardy with 16 points, and Mark Linebaugh and Howard Blue with 13 apiece.

Richie Meyers led the Golden Eagles with a career-high 28 points, scoring 16 in the first half. Tyrone Tiggs added 12 points and six rebounds for ORU, while Reggie Borges tallied eight points and grabbed eight rebounds.

Oral Roberts opened the game with an 8-1 run, before the Raiders rallied to tie the contest at 15. The rest of the first half remained tight with seven lead changes and three ties before Colgate managed a 34-33 halftime advantage.

In the second half, Colgate broke the game open with a 20-9 run for a 59-48 lead with 8:49 remaining. Hardy contributed seven points and Josh Humphrey five to the decisive run. The Raiders extended their lead to 16 points with 1:53 left as they made 13-of-15 free throws down the stretch.

Colgate held a 31-27 advantage on the boards led by Campolieta with nine and Blue with eight.
ITHACA, N.Y. - Pat Campolieta 17 points and Howard Blue came off the bench to score 15 to lead Colgate to a 68-55 win over Cornell at Newman Arena.

It was the fifth straight year that the visiting has won in this rivalry between these two Upstate New York schools.

The Raiders, off to their best start since the 1992-93 season, have won nine of their 14 games played in the series.

Also in double figures as the Raiders rolled to a 17-point lead was Preston Shumpert added 14 as the undefeated and nationally-ranked Syracuse Orangemen defeated Colgate, 70-51, at the Carrier Dome.

CAMBRIDGE, MA – Tim Sullivan scored a season-high 18 points and Pat Campolieta added 15 points and eight rebounds to lead Colgate to a 76-64 decision over Harvard at the Lavietes Pavilion.

Colgate won for the third straight game and posted its fourth straight over the Crimson.

Also in double figures for Colgate were Dave Hardy with 12 and Martin Marek with 10. Patrick Harvey paced Harvard with 17.

After Harvard scored the opening basket of the contest, Colgate went on a 10-3 run to open a five-point advantage and never looked back. Mark Linebaugh led the Colgate outburst with five points.

The Raiders increased their lead to 13 points, 30-17, when Sullivan nailed a 3-pointer with 7:10 left in the first half. Harvard’s five straight points to wrap up the first half, left the Crimson trailing 36-29 at intermission.

In the second half, Harvard cut Colgate’s lead to five points with 17:27 remaining, 40-35, but the Raiders responded with five straight points to open a double-digit lead again. Colgate upped its advantage to 55-41 before the Crimson made one final attempt to catch up with a 10-2 run to trail 57-51 with 6:01 left.

The Raiders, however, answered the challenge outscoring Harvard 10-2 to put the game away for a 67-51 lead with 3:39 remaining. Campolieta and Hardy had four points apiece in the spurt.

Colgate outrebounded the Crimson, 30-26, led by Campolieta with eight and Sullivan with five.

HAMILTON, N.Y. – Pat Campolieta scored 14 points and grabbed eight rebounds to lead Colgate to an 85-48 non-conference win over Hobart College at Cotterell Court.

Colgate, returning to the hardwood after a 10-day break for final exams, won its fourth straight games for its best start since the 1992-93 season. The Raiders have defeated Hobart 15 straight times in the series.

Also in double figures for Colgate were Mark Linebaugh and Howard Blue with 12 apiece and Charles Harris added 11 points for the Big Green.

HAMILTON, N.Y. – Pat Campolieta scored a game-high 22 points and grabbed seven rebounds to lead Colgate to a 73-65 win over Dartmouth at Cotterell Court.

The victory was Colgate’s fifth straight win, giving the Raiders their best start since the 1971-72 campaign.

Also in double figures for Colgate were Martin Marek and Howard Blue with 12 apiece and Mark Linebaugh with 11.

Campolieta’s 22-point effort moved him into eighth place on the school’s all-time scoring list with 1,352 points. He was 4-of-9 from the field and 14-of-15 from the charity stripe.

Flinder Boyd led Dartmouth with 16 points and Charles Harris added 11 points for the Big Green.

Colgate held an 11-8 lead in the first half before Dartmouth strung together three straight 3-pointers for a 17-11 advantage with 11:08 left in the half. The Big Green was on top at halftime, 30-27.

In the second half, Colgate came out scoring the first seven points to take the lead 34-30 on a conventional three-point play by Campolieta and a pair of baskets by Linebaugh. The Big Green came back to take a two-point advantage, 38-36, before Colgate went on an 11-3 run for a 47-41 lead which they never relinquished.

Dartmouth was able to take Colgate’s six-point advantage to two points with 13:06 left but the Raiders scored 13 of the next 16 points to ice the contest. Marek tallied seven points during the run.

Colgate increased its advantage to as many as 14 points down the stretch on two occasions. The Raiders outrebounded Dartmouth 42-26 paced by Campolieta and Tim Sullivan with seven apiece.

Halftime: Notre Dame 37, Colgate 31.

Bianint, IN – Freshman guard Chris Thomas scored a career-high 28 points to lead Notre Dame to a 92-61 win over Colgate at the Joyce Center.

Thomas made 6-of-8 3-pointers as the Irish connected on 11-of-18 from behind the arc. Also in double figures for Notre Dame were Ryan Humphrey with 21 points followed by Matt Carroll with 14 and David Graves with 13.

The Raiders, who saw their five-game winning streak come to an end, were paced by Tim Sullivan with 17 points – all in the first half, while Mark Linebaugh netted 16.

Colgate was ice-cold over the first 10 minutes of the contest falling behind 19-4 with 11:51 left. The Raiders’ first basket didn’t come until the 11:39 mark on Howard Blue’s layup.

Blue’s layup started an 11-5 run for the Raiders as they cut the Irish lead to 10 points, 25-15. Notre Dame scored the next four points, but Sullivan answered back with eight straight points as Colgate moved to within six, 25-19, with 4:21 remaining.

The Raiders were trailing by four points in the final minute of the first half, before Graves’ jumper gave the Irish a six-point lead at halftime, 37-31.

Just like the first half, the Raiders couldn’t buy a basket as Notre Dame tallied the first 10 points to open a 47-31 advantage. Colgate wouldn’t get it back to a 11-point deficit but that would be as close as they came to the Irish.

Blue finished with four points and eight rebounds for the Raiders, while Josh Humphrey tallied five points and grabbed a career-high six rebounds. Martin Marek scored seven points, and Sullivan finished with six rebonds.

HAMILTON, N.Y.—Demond Shepard hit two free throws with six seconds remaining in overtime to carry Navy to a 95-93 Patriot League victory over Colgate at Cotterell Court. The Raiders sent the game into overtime when Mark Linebaugh spun in the lane and hit a 12-footer to tie the score with 13 seconds remaining in regulation. On the ensuing Navy possession Linebaugh took a charge, giving the Raiders one final attempt to win but Dave Hardy’s shot at the buzzer missed.

In overtime, Linebaugh tied the contest 93-93 with 17 seconds remaining before Shepard was fouled under the basket setting the stage for the winning free throws.

Colgate had one last attempt to win the contest but Devon Tuohy’s 3-pointer bounced off the back rim at the buzzer.

This was the second straight year that the Midshipmen defeated Colgate in overtime, as they posted their 11th straight victory. In the second half, Colgate scored the first eight points and grabbed eight rebounds as Bucknell downed Colgate 80-75 at Cotterell Court in a Patriot League game.

Bucknell has beaten Colgate in seven of the last eight meetings. Also in double figures for the Bison were Dan Blankenship with 14, Bryan Bailey with 13 and Matt Quinn, who netted 10.

Mark Linebaugh and Pat Campolieta paced the Raiders with 14 points apiece. Campolieta also grabbed a game-high 13 rebounds, giving him his fourth double-double of the season. Martin Marek added 10 points for Colgate.

The Bison claimed their first lead of the contest at 19-18 with 11:11 to go in the first half and never trailed again. They led by as many as 15 late in the contest before the Raiders had a desperation comeback on two three-pointers by Linebaugh to pull Colgate to within five points in the final minute of the game.

Bucknell finished the game shooting 54 percent from the field and 50 percent from behind the arc, while Colgate shot 42 percent from the field goal but only 20 percent from 3-point range (4-of-20). The Raiders also had a miserable night from the charity stripe making only 15-of-27 attempts.

EASTON, PA. — Senior forward Pat Campolieta scored 18 points and grabbed five rebounds to lead Colgate to a 71-67 win over Lafayette in a Patriot League game at the Kirby Sports Center.

Colgate held a two-point advantage with three seconds left, before icing the contest on a pair of free throws by Dave Hardy with his only two points of the contest.

Also in double figures for the Raiders was Mark Linebaugh with 14 points, while Tim Sullivan netted 12 points, and Howard Blue added eight points and seven rebounds.

Brian Burke led Lafayette with a career-high 28 points followed by Mike Farrell with 13 points, and Justin DeBerry and Andrew Pleick with 10 apiece.

Colgate opened the contest with a seven-point run behind Blue’s opening bucket and five straight points from Campolieta. Campolieta scored 17 of the Raiders’ first 21 points including 13 straight after Blue’s opening basket.

Lafayette came back to tie the contest 17-17 on Burke’s 3-pointer. The Leopards moved in front by three points, 26-23, before Colgate’s Keith Williams tied the contest at halftime with a 3-pointer at the buzzer.

In the second half, Colgate scored the first four points before Lafayette came back to lead 34-32 with 15:38 remaining. The Raiders responded with eight straight points on back-to-back 3-pointers by Linebaugh and Bill Kern’s lay-up, and never looked back. Colgate lead by as many as 10 points on four occasions before the Leopards made one final attempt to pull the game out.

Colgate held a 68-61 lead with 1:31 left after Kern’s two free throws, but a technical foul on the Raiders for six seconds played on the court gave Lafayette two points on a pair of free throws by Burke. On the ensuing possession for the Leopards, Farrell made a lay-up to cut the lead to three points, 68-65.

Campolieta made one of two free throws to put Colgate back up by four points, before Pleick hit a lay-up to 69-67 with 52 seconds remaining. Lafayette got the ball back with 14 seconds left after Linebaugh’s shot was blocked but Burke missed a 3-point attempt and Hardy grabbed the rebound with three seconds left and was fouled.
HAMILTON, N.Y. -- Mark Linebaugh equaled a career-high 27 points and grabbed seven rebounds as Colgate downed Army, 82-72, in a Patriot League game at Cotterell Court.

The Raiders extended their winning streak to four straight over the Cadets, who have suffered 15 straight losses on Colgate's home court.

Pat Campolieta recorded his fifth double-double of the season netting 17 points and grabbing 12 rebounds. In route to the double-double he moved into fifth place in career scoring with 1,500 points. Campolieta added 18 points and nine rebounds to Colgate's home court.

Charles Woodruff paced the Knights with 21 points and eight rebounds, while Chris Spotila chipped in 19.

Army led the Raiders in the first half, 23-22, before Colgate put together a six-point spurt and never looked back. The Raiders extended their lead to as many as 12 before settling for a 46-37 halftime advantage. In the second half, the closest Army came was seven points, 77-70, with 50 seconds left.

Colgate shot a blistering 55 percent from the field (27-of-49), while Army made 46 percent on 28-of-60.

The Raiders dominated the glass outrebounding Army 38-24.

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Glenn Stokes scored 19 points and Steven Miles added 18 points and nine rebounds to lead American University to a 72-58 Patriot League win over Colgate at Bender Arena.

The Eagles snapped Colgate’s three-game winning streak as they maintain their hold on first place in the Patriot League.

Other American players in double figures were Patrick Doctor and Vladimir Buscaglia with 10 points apiece. The Eagles shot 55 percent from the field including a blistering 54 percent from behind the arc as they hit on 8-of-15 3-pointers led by Miles with four.

Mark Linebaugh led Colgate with 17 points, while freshman Keith Williams tallied a career-high 10 points. Pat Campolieta and Howard Blue had nine points each for the Raiders.

Colgate held an early 16-10 lead, but with Campolieta, Linebaugh and Dave Hardy on the bench with two fouls apiece, the Eagles closed out the first half with a 23-8 run for a 33-24 advantage.

In the second half, the closest Colgate came was five points with 17:32 remaining, 37-32.

Three-point goals: Colgate 4-17 (Linebaugh 4-8, Campolieta 2-1, Williams 0-1, Spatola, JP 0-2, Wilson 0-2).

VESTAL, N.Y. -- Sophomore Mark Linebaugh scored a season-high 21 points, including the 500th point of his career, to lead Colgate to a 62-58 win over Binghamton in the final non-conference game of the season for the Raiders.

Colgate posts its second straight win, while Binghamton, which has never defeated the Raiders in four outings, suffered its second straight setback.

Also in double figures for Colgate were Pat Campolieta with 13 and Dave Hardy with 10. Jeffery Daws led the Bears with 13, while Mike Wright and Andrew Hannan had 10 apiece.

Campolieta became the fifth player in Patriot League history to rank in the Top 10 in scoring and rebounding, and the first player in league history with 1,500 points, 600 rebounds and 175 steals.

Colgate jumped out to a 10-point lead, 12-2, in the first half on five points each from Linebaugh and Howard Blue. Binghamton came back to go ahead 18-17 on Wright’s jumper with 4:24 left. The Bears still held a one-point advantage over the Raiders with 2:30 remaining, 23-22, before Colgate scored seven straight points en route to a 29-26 halftime lead.

In the second half, Colgate opened an 11-point lead twice before the Bears clawed their way back to a one-point deficit, 56-55, with 52 seconds left.

Colgate hit four straight free throws before Binghamton’s Hannan nailed a 3-pointer with seven seconds left to bring the home team to within two points, 60-58. The Raiders iced the game on a pair of free throws by Hardy with 10 seconds remaining.

Campolieta and Linebaugh led Colgate in rebounding with six apiece, while Martin Marek had five off the bench. Colgate shot 47 percent from the field, compared to a cold 34 percent by Binghamton.
