This Week’s Match-Ups

This year, it’s been all about trying new things for the Raiders. For the fifth and sixth times this season, Colgate will be facing an opponent for the first time. The Raiders host Princeton at Starr Rink this weekend for a pair of ECAC-North games.

Colgate has four more first meetings left on its schedule, including a New Year’s series at Mercyhurst on Jan. 5 & 6.

Wisner Reaches 40

Saturday’s 5-4 win over Findlay marked head coach Ted Wisner’s 40th career win. The Potsdam, N.Y. native is 40-17-4 since taking over the program two years ago, and his .689 winning percentage is the best that the women’s hockey program has ever seen. Wisner was the AWCHA Division III and ECAC Division III Coach of the Year in 1999-00 when he led the Raiders to a 21-4-0 record and a second-place conference finish in his first season at the helm.

Money Rookies

Among Colgate’s freshmen are two players who can be described in just one word: money. Kristen Cibrus and Chelsey Rhodes both have two game-winning goals, tying them for first in the league in that category. Most recently, Rhodes scored with less than five minutes left in a 1-1 game to clinch a 2-1 win over Wayne State in the Raiders’ last game at Starr Rink, while Cibrus iced a 5-4 victory over Findlay on Saturday.

Topping the Charts

With her four-point performance last weekend that earned her ECAC-North Rookie of the Week, Cheryl Setchell has put her name at the top of Colgate’s scoring chart. The Sydney, Nova Scotia native’s hat-trick, plus her game-winning assist, gave her five goals and two helpers on the season. Sophomore Katie Greenhauser trails the rookie at 2-4-6.

With scoring spread so evenly this season, this is the first time that Colgate has had a single player at the top of the scoring chart.

Improving on a Good Thing

At 4-5-1 after their first 10 games as a Division I team, most people would concur that the Raiders are doing better than expected. This weekend, Colgate has an opportunity to become even better. Senior three-time All-America Heather Murphy has returned from her semester in Australia, and will lace ‘em up for the Raiders for the first time since March. With 145 career points, the St. Paul, Minnesota native is Colgate’s all-time leading scorer.

Up in the Air

At this point in the season, after playing 10 games, most teams have probably decided on a No. 1 goalie. Well, that’s because most teams don’t have Rebecca Lahar and Lindsay Bourne on their rosters.

The two freshmen have been in a friendly battle for the top netminding job since the beginning of the season. Now, both have four games behind them. Lahar is 1-2-1 with a 1.96 GAA and .930 save percentage, while Bourne is 2-2-0 with a 3.00 GAA and .897 save percentage. Lahar has lost her last two starts, while Bourne has won her last two. However, it seems like Bourne has received more goal support from her teammates than Lahar, as her higher goals against average indicates. Hopefully, the Colgate coaching staff will finally be able to choose between these two talents in this weekend’s series.

- Lindsay Bourne (1-0-0, 28 saves-32 shots), 11/26

Rookie Rankings
- Colgate has five rookies who are making a dent in the ECAC’s top 10 lists. Raider sniper Cheryl Setchell, who is sitting atop Colgate’s team scoring chart, ranks fifth on the ECAC-North’s freshman scoring list with five goals and two assists on the year. Her five tallies ranks fourth on the goal scoring chart.
- Kristin Cirbus broke into the rookie scoring list this week, where she sits at seventh with two goals and three assists. Cirbus and Chelsey Rhodes are in a five-way tie for the league lead in game-winning goals.

- In the goaltending categories, Rebecca Lahar continues to sit high up in the league. Her .930 save percentage and 1.96 goals against average both rank third among ECAC-North goalies. After two straight losses, she has dropped out of the top 10 in winning percentage, but Lindsay Bourne has moved up to a four-way tie for fifth place with a .500 winning percentage.

There’s Something Special About These Numbers
- Colgate’s power play appears to be off to a sputtering start. After going seven games without converting on an extra-man opportunity, the Raiders have scored two power-play goals in three games. Colgate is 2-for-8 over the past three contests, a 25% conversion pace, despite being just 2-for-37 on the season (5.4%).

- The penalty kill unit, however, is doing quite well at 90.0% effectiveness, making it the fourth-best penalty kill in the league. The Raiders have killed off 27 of 30 5-on-4 situations.

Late-Game Push
- Even though the Raiders have been outscored 14-9 in the third period, it doesn’t mean that Colgate hasn’t been trying. While they are outshot by a combined 32 SOG in the first and second periods, the Raiders outshot their opponents by 6 in the third.

2001-02 COLGATE WOMEN'S ICE HOCKEY • INAUGURAL DIVISION I SEASON

University Quick Facts

School: Colgate University
Location: Hamilton, N.Y.
Founded: 1819
Enrollment: 2,800

Conference: ECAC North
HAMILTON, N.Y. - Colgate freshman Cheryl Setchell (Sydney, N.S.) was named the ECAC-North's Rookie of the Week after her four-point performance in Saturday's 5-4 win over Findlay.

After putting the Raiders ahead with two first-period goals, Setchell brought Colgate back from a 4-3 deficit to tie the game early in the third, before feeding honor roll selection Kristin Cirbus (Jamestown, N.Y.) for the game-winning goal.

Sophomore Katie Breen (North Andover, Mass.) was also named to the honor roll after she chipped in a helper on each of Setchell's goals, giving her a career-high three assists.

Raider backstop Lindsay Bourne (Redlands, Calif.) earned a spot on the honor roll for her 28-save effort in Saturday's win. Bourne kept Colgate in the game, despite the Raiders being outshot 32-16.

The Raiders have shown that if they can do one of four things, they have a pretty good chance to win the game. First, they could score the first goal of the game. Colgate is 2-0-0 when scoring first. Second, if they can hold a lead through the first period, they have a good shot at winning. The Raiders are 2-0-0 when leading after the first period. Third, they need to throw shots at their opponent's goalie. Colgate is 3-0-0 when it outshoots its opponents. Finally, and this one may not be obvious, they should get whistled for more penalties than their opponents. The Raiders are 2-0-0 when they have more time in the box.

If there's one thing the Raiders have discovered through the first part of the season, it's that they can get scoring production from any player on the ice. Of the 17 players who have skated in at least six of Colgate's 10 games, only one (junior defenseman Toby Mandel) has yet to get her name on the scoring sheet.

Last Time Out...

RAIDERS EARN A 5-4 WIN OVER FINDLAY FOR THE SERIES SPLIT

FINDLAY, Ohio - Raider freshman Kristin Cirbus (Jamestown, N.Y.) scored at the 6:48 mark of the third period as Colgate came from behind to defeat Findlay 5-4 on Saturday afternoon at the Clausse Ice Arena. The loss dropped the Oilers to 5-7-0 overall while Colgate improved to 4-5-1.

Colgate jumped out to a 3-1 first period lead on just five shots against Findlay starting goaltender Erin Blair (Lisle, Ill.). The Oilers, however, scored first off the stick of freshman Janet Ploncinsky (Bloomington, Minn.) at 7:49 of the first period. Ploncinsky scored on a rebound past Colgate goaltender Lindsay Bourne (Redlands, Calif.) for her third goal of the season. Sophomore Sherrie White (Neepawa, Manitoba) and Stasia Bakhit (Omaha, Neb.) recorded the assists.

The Raiders scored three unanswered goals to close out the opening period, including two by freshman Cheryl Setchell (Sydney, N.S.). Sophomore Caitlin Hornyak (Middletown, Conn.) tied the game at 1-1 just 38 seconds after the Oilers grabbed the lead. Rookie Maura Kehoe (Chelsea, Que.) picked up the lone assist.

Less than a minute later, Setchell tallied to make it 2-1 Colgate. Cirbus and sophomore Katie Breen (North Andover, Mass.) registered the assists on the goal at 9:25. Setchell would later score on the power play at 17:28 of the first to give Colgate a two-goal advantage.

Setchell’s second goal chased Blair from the net, and she was replaced by freshman goaltender Amy Jones (Brooklyn Park, Minn.) at the start of the second period. The Oilers responded with three unanswered goals in the middle period. Junior Melissa Oliver (Hickson, Ont.) scored her third goal of the season at the 1:44 mark to cut the Raider lead to one. Senior Monell Schroeder (Redmond, Wash.) and rookie Jenn Jessop (Aurora, Ont.) picked up the assists on Oliver’s goal.

White scored twice to close out the period for the Oilers, the first coming at the 6:23 mark. Bakhit and Ploncinsky picked up the assists on the tying goal. Bakhit fed White for another goal at 15:04, giving Findlay a 4-3 advantage after 40 minutes of play.

But the third period belonged to Colgate. Setchell tied the game at four each at 4:33 to give her the hat trick. Cirbus and Breen recorded the assists. Just over two minutes later, Cirbus gave the Raiders the 5-4 lead with an assist from Setchell. The Oilers had numerous chances from point-blank range in the third period, but could not get the equalizer past Bourne.

Findlay held a 32-16 shot advantage over the Raiders, but Blair and Jones combined to stop just 11 of the 16 Colgate shots. Jones recorded her first loss of the season (4-1-0) by stopping nine of 11 shots. Blair stopped just two of Colgate’s five first-period shots.

For the Raiders, Bourne recorded her second-straight victory to even her record at 2-2-0 on the season by making 28 saves.

FINDLAY OVERCOMES COLGATE 2-1

FINDLAY, Ohio - After keeping Findlay off the board for nearly two periods, the Oilers picked up all the goals they would need late in the second and midway through the third as they pushed past Colgate for a 2-1 victory.

With just 24 seconds left in the middle period, Findlay freshman Jenn Jessop (Aurora, Ont.) broke up the scoreless tie when she scored on a feed from senior Monell Schroeder (Redmond, Wash.) and junior Melissa Oliver (Hickson, Ont.). The Oilers widened their lead at 7:17 of the third when sophomore Stasia Bakhit (Omaha, Neb.) scored on the power play with freshman Janet Ploncinsky (Bloomington, Minn.) and sophomore Abbey Strong (Chassell, Mich.) getting credit for the assists.

The Raiders got on the board with 7:10 left in the game when senior Maura Crowell (Mansfield, Mass.) scored on a pass from junior Nicole Lehrhoff (Morristown, N.J.), but it was too little, too late to keep Findlay from taking the win.

Colgate freshman goalie Rebecca Lahar (Vienna, Va.) made 27 saves in her second-straight loss, while Findlay junior netminder Erin Blair (Lisle, Ill.) stopped 22 Raider shots for the win.
For the second consecutive year, Dartmouth College will play host to the 2002 ECAC JPMorganChase Hockey Championship, which will be held March 16-17 at Thompson Arena. This season’s semifinals will be played on Saturday, March 16 and the championship game will be played on Sunday, March 17.

A total of eight teams qualify for the ECAC playoffs and will be seeded based on the regular season standings. The format for the quarterfinals, new for the 2002 tournament, will be the best of a three game series and will be played on the weekend of March 8, 9 and 10 at the homes of the highest seeds. The winners of the quarterfinal games advance to the 2002 ECAC JPMorganChase Hockey Championship.
