Colgate vs. Army
Tipoff - 7:45 p.m.
Cotterell Court,
Hamilton, N.Y.

Colgate (11-8, 2-4) Entertains Army (9-10, 3-3)
To Conclude First Half Of Patriot League Slate

THE MATCHUP
The Colgate University basketball team (11-8 overall, 2-4 Patriot League) carries a two-game winning streak into Wednesday night’s Patriot League encounter against Army (9-10, 3-3) at Cotterell Court. Tip-off is 7:45 p.m.

The Raiders have posted back-to-back road victories over Lafayette and Binghamton, while Army has taken two of its last three league games including victories over Holy Cross and Lafayette. The Cadets were defeated on Saturday at Navy, 79-61, extending their losing streak on the road to five straight.

Sophomore Mark Linebaugh scored a season-high 21 points, grabbed six rebounds and dished out five assists to lead Colgate to a 62-58 win over Binghamton Monday night in the final non-conference game for the Raiders. Pat Campolieta was also in double figures for the Raiders with 13 points, while Dave Hardy added 10 points.

This is the 89th meeting between Colgate and Army with the Cadets leading the overall series, 48-40. Colgate, however, has won the last three outings and 10 of the last 12 games played between these Patriot League rivals. Colgate swept last year’s home-and-home series - winning 79-59 at Army and 84-68 at Cotterell Court. The Raiders have won 14 straight against the Cadets at Cotterell Court.

Campolieta, the first player in school history to rank in the Top 10 in career scoring (1,501), rebounding (628), assists (214) and steals (176), continues to lead Colgate in scoring and rebounding. He is averaging 15.7 points per game and 7.0 caroms per outing, which is good for third place in the Patriot League in both categories.

Campolieta comes into the game needing 11 points for fifth place on Colgate’s all-time scoring list and four rebounds for ninth place.

Linebaugh is second in scoring with 12.2 points per game, while Howard Blue is third with 10.9 points per game. Tim Sullivan is averaging 9.3 ppg and Hardy 8.6 ppg.

Chris Spatola is Army’s leading scorer with 16.9 points per game followed closely by Charles Woodruff with 15.9. They rank one-two in Patriot League scoring. The Cadets’ leading rebounder is Jonte Harrell with 7.3 per game - second best in the Patriot League.

STAT OF THE GAME
With the starting assignment Wednesday night against Army, senior forward Pat Campolieta will break the Colgate record for starts in a career with his 102nd consecutive start. Also with 11 points, he will move into fifth place on the school’s all-time scoring list.

THE SERIES
This is the 89th meeting between Colgate and Army with the Cadets leading the overall series, 48-40. Colgate, however, has won the last three outings and 10 of the last 12 games played between these Patriot League rivals. Colgate swept last year’s home-and-home series — winning 79-59 at Army and 84-68 at Cotterell Court. The Raiders have won 14 straight against the Cadets at Cotterell Court.

LAST TIME VS. ARMY
(Hamilton, N.Y. - Feb. 7, 2002) - Sophomore Tim Sullivan scored 21 points, including four 3-pointers, to lead Colgate to an 84-68 Patriot League win over Army at Cotterell Court.

Other Colgate players in double figures were Mark Linebaugh with 11 points, and Pat Campolieta and Dave Hardy with 10 apiece.

Chris Spatola with 18 points and Dax Pearson with 17 paced Army.

The score was tied 11-11 with 14:59 remaining in the first half, before Campolieta’s layup put the Raiders ahead for good. The Raiders were leading 27-21 later in the half, before outscoring the Cadets, 20-6, for a 47-26 halftime lead. Sullivan led the surge with eight points.

In the second half, Colgate increased its lead to 26 points on four occasions before both teams emptied the benches.

Colgate outrebounded the Cadets 43-35 led by Robert Akers with eight and Howard Blue with six. Hardy had seven assists for the Raiders.

Colgate’s Last Outing
(Vestal, N.Y. - Jan. 28, 2002) - Sophomore Mark Linebaugh scored a season-high 21 points, including the 500th point of his career, to lead Colgate to a 62-58 win over Binghamton in the final non-conference game of the season for the Raiders.

Colgate posts its second straight win, while Binghamton, which has never defeated the Raiders in four outings, suffered its second straight setback.

Also in double figures for Colgate were Pat Campolieta with 13 and Dave Hardy with 10. Jeffrey Daws led the Bearcats with 13, while Mike Wright and Andrew Hannan had 10 apiece.

Campolieta became the fifth player in Patriot League history to rank in the Top 10 in scoring and rebounding, and the first player in league history with

COLGATE TO RETIRE ADONAL FOYLE'S NUMBER

Adonal Foyle will become the fourth player in Colgate history to have his basketball number retired during a halftime ceremony on February 9. Foyle played three seasons with the Raiders between 1995-97. He led Colgate to its only two appearances ever in the NCAA Tournament while earning second team All-America honors by U.S. Basketball Writers Association and third team All-America by Associated Press in 1997.

Foyle finished his collegiate career as Colgate’s second all-time leading scorer with 1,776 points and leading rebounder with 1,103. The two-time Patriot League Player of the Year is the NCAA all-time blocked shot leader with 492.

In his last season with the Raiders, Foyle was a finalist for The John R. Wooden and USBWA Player of the Year honors. He was the eighth pick overall in the 1997 NBA draft by the Golden State Warriors. He is currently playing his fifth season in the NBA.

Foyle was also a top-notch student-athlete earning first team University-Division GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America honors in 1997.

HAMILTON, N.Y.
Pat Campolietta scored 24 points and Howard Blue added 20 points to lead six Colgate players in double figures as the Raiders rolled to a 99-87 win over Long Island University in the season opener.

The contest swung back-and-forth in the first half with neither team holding more than a five-point advantage. Jaa Bey was hot for LIU early, scoring 11 of his 20 points in the opening 20 minutes. Blue led Colgate in the first half with 13 of his 20 points.

The second half remained tight with five ties and three lead changes. With Colgate holding an 80-79 edge with 4:32 left to play, the Raiders went on a 19-8 run to close the contest. Blue, Mark Linebaugh and Tim Sullivan tallied four points apiece in the spurt.

Campolietta finished with his ninth career double-double as he added 10 rebounds to his offensive output. Linebaugh finished with 15 points and nine rebounds and Sullivan registered 13 points and six caroms.

Colgate converted 39-of-44 (89 percent) from the foul line and out-rebounded the Blackbirds, 48-30.

HAMILTON, N.Y.
Kodiak Yazzie's jumper at the buzzer lifted Northern Arizona to a 78-77 double overtime victory over Colgate in a non-conference game at Cotterell Court.

Colgate had taken a 77-76 lead with 2.8 seconds remaining on Mark Linebaugh's layup. But after a time-out, Northern Arizona threw the ball the length of the floor where Yazzie picked up the loose ball and fired home the game-winner from 15-feet.

Brian McHugh with 25 points and Howard Blue with 13 apiece.

Richie Meyers led the Golden Eagles with a career-high 28 points, scoring 16 in the first half. Tyrone Tiggs added 12 points and six rebounds for ORU, while Reggie Borges tallied eight points and grabbed eight rebounds.

Oral Roberts opened the game with an 8-1 run, before the Raiders rallied to tie the contest at 15. The rest of the first half remained tight with seven lead changes and three ties before Colgate managed a 34-33 halftime advantage.

In the second half, Colgate broke the game open with a 20-9 run for a 59-48 lead with 8:49 remaining. Hardy contributed seven points and Josh Humphrey five to the decisive run. The Raiders extended their lead to 16 points with 1:53 left as they made 13-of-15 free throws down the stretch.

Colgate held a 31-27 advantage on the boards led by Campolietta with nine and Blue with eight.
ITHACA, N.Y. - Pat Campolieta 17 points and Howard Blue came off the bench to score 15 to lead Colgate to a 68-55 win over Cornell at Newman Arena.

It was the fifth straight year that the visiting has won in this rivalry between these two Upstate New York schools. The Raiders, off to their best start since the 1993-94 season, have won nine of the last 11 games played in the series. Also in double figures for the Raiders were Martin Marek with a season-high 16 points and Tim Sullivan with 10.

The Big Red held an early 7-2 lead before Colgate rallied to tie the contest at 11 on Sullivan’s 3-pointer. Sullivan’s 3-pointer began a nine-point spurt for the Raiders with Blue adding the final six.

Colgate’s biggest lead in the first half came with two minutes remaining as the Raiders led 29-20. Cornell cut the lead to 44-41 going into the break. The Raiders hit 15-of-18 free throw line. Colgate point guard Dave Hardy added 12, including his 500th collegiate point on four-of-five shooting from behind the arc, while Martin Marek contributed 10.

Colgate shot 50% from the field, while Yale managed only 39.7 percent. Ine Archibong scored a game-high 23 points for the Bulldogs (4-4). Colgate led by as many as 14 points in the first half, but a late Yale run cut the lead to 44-41 going into the break. The Raiders hit 15-of-18 free throws down the stretch in the second half, preventing a Yale comeback. Yale had taken its first lead since the three-minute mark of the first half when Archibong completed a three-point play, giving the Bulldogs a 47-46 advantage with 17:04 remaining in the game.

The Raiders answered back, though, and Campolieta ran off eight straight points to push Colgate back into double digits.
HAMILTON, N.Y. – Pat Campolieta scored 14 points and grabbed eight rebounds to lead Colgate to an 85-48 non-conference win over Hobart College at Cotterell Court.

The victory was Colgate’s fifth straight win, giving the Raiders their best start since the 1971-72 campaign.

HAMILTON, N.Y. – Glenn Stokes led six American University players in double figures with 15 points, as the Eagles defeated Colgate, 76-59, in the Patriot League opener for both teams.

American, playing its first game in the Patriot League after 16 seasons in the Colonial Athletic Association, extended to three consecutive set-point losses.

With the victory, Lehigh snapped a three-game losing streak.

Halftime: American 35, Colgate 31. Three-point field goals: Colgate 7-17 (Hardy 3-3, Ballard 1-2, Sullivan 1-3, Blue 0-1, Marek 0-2, Linebaugh 0-6); American 7-19 (Buscaglia 2-3, Stokes 2-6, Boyd 2-6, Miles 1-3, Adams 0-1). Turnovers: Colgate 13, American 14. Technical fouls: None. Attendance: 536.

BETHLEHEM, PA – Matt Logie scored 23 points and Alex Jensen added 20 to lead the Lehigh men’s basketball team to a 79-74 come-from-behind Patriot League win over Colgate at Stabler Arena.

Lehigh scored the final 13 points of the contest after Colgate had taken a 72-66 lead with 4:07 remaining on a pair of free throws by Pat Campolieta. Logie led the rally with nine points, including six-of-six from the charity stripe, and Jensen added four points.

Lehigh led at halftime 41-36 but Colgate started the second half with a 24-8 run for a 60-49 advantage with 13:22 remaining. The Raiders still led by 11 points, 67-56, with 10:22 left but the Mountain Hawks closed the game outscoring Colgate 23-7.

Howard Blue led Colgate with a career-high 24 points and grabbed eight rebounds, while Campolieta finished with 23 points and Mark Linebaugh netted 11.

Campolieta jumped from eighth place to sixth place on Colgate’s all-time scoring list with 1,417 points.

With the victory, Lehigh snapped a three-game losing streak, while the Raiders had their losing streak extended to three consecutive setbacks.

Worcester, MA - Senior forward Pat Campolieta had his third double-double of the season with 16 points and 10 rebounds to lead Colgate to a 46-42 upset win over Holy Cross College at the Hart Center.

Colgate snapped a three-game losing streak with the win over the Crusaders. Holy Cross dropped only its second home game at the Hart Center in its last 13 outings.

Other top scorers for Colgate were freshman Keith Williams and sophomore Howard Blue with eight points apiece. Linebaugh added seven points for the Raiders and Tim Sullivan had six points.

Pat Whearty led the Crusaders with 12 points and Ryan Serravalle netted 10.

Holy Cross took an early 17-9 lead over the Raiders, before Colgate scored nine straight points to move in front 18-17. Williams scored the last seven points in the run for the Raiders.

Colgate’s lead was short-lived as the Crusaders moved in front at halftime, 24-20.

The Raiders opened the second half with nine straight points for a 29-24 advantage. Then Tim Szatko scored and Serravalle converted a 3-pointer for Holy Cross to make it 29-29 with 12 minutes to go. Blue scored back-to-back baskets inside igniting a 10-2 run. A Colgate 3-point goal stopped the surge, giving Colgate a 39-31 lead with eight minutes left. They led by as many as eight points, 41-33, with 6:37 left. The closest the Crusaders came was 44-42 with 2:18 remaining.

Colgate iced the contest on a free throw by Campolieta with nine seconds left.

Halftime: Holy Cross 24, Colgate 20. Three-point field goals: Colgate 4-10 (Campolieta 1-1, Linebaugh 1-2, Williams 1-2, Sullivan 1-4, Marek 0-1); Holy Cross 2-17 (Lomot 1-3, Serravalle 1-6, Szatko 0-1, Walsh 0-1, Corbett 0-1, Stelzer 0-3). Turnovers: Colgate 12, Holy Cross 12. Technical fouls: None. Attendance: 2,159.
HAMILTON, N.Y.—Demond Shepard hit two free throws with six seconds remaining in overtime to carry Navy to a 95-93 Patriot League victory over Bucknell at Cotterell Court.

The Raiders sent the game into overtime when Mark Linebaugh spun in the lane and hit a 12-footer to tie the score with 13 seconds remaining in regulation. On the ensuing Navy possession Linebaugh took a charge, giving the Raiders one final attempt to win but Dave Hardy’s shot at the buzzer missed.

In overtime, Linebaugh tied the contest at 99-99 with 9:39 remaining. The Raiders responded with eight straight points on back-to-back three-pointers by Linebaugh and Bill Kern’s lay-up, but Burke missed a 3-point attempt and Hardy grabbed the rebound with three seconds left and fouled.

HAMILTON, N.Y.—Boakai Lualuga scored a game-high 16 points and grabbed eight rebounds as Bucknell downed Colgate 80-75 at Cotterell Court in a Patriot League game.

Bucknell has beaten Colgate in seven of the last eight meetings.

Also in double figures for the Bison were Dan Blankenship with 14, Bryan Bailey with 13 and Matt Quinn, who netted 10.

Mark Linebaugh and Pat Campolieta paced the Raiders with 14 points apiece. Campolieta also grabbed a game-high 13 rebounds, giving him his fourth double-double of the season. Martin Marek added 10 points for Colgate.

The Bison claimed their first lead of the contest at 19-18 with 11:11 to go in the first half and never trailed again. They led by as many as 15 late in the contest before the Raiders had a desperation comeback on two three-pointers by Linebaugh to pull Bucknell to within five points in the final minute of the game.

Bucknell finished the game shooting 54 percent from the field and 50 percent from behind the arc, while Colgate shot 42 percent from the field goal but only 20 percent from 3-point range (4-of-20). The Raiders also had a miserable night from the charity stripe making only 15-of-27 attempts.

HAMILTON, N.Y.—Jasean Jeanpri scored a game-high 12 points and grabbed seven rebounds as Bucknell defeated Colgate 70-61 at Cotterell Court.

Jeanpri, a transfer from Temple, was fouled out of the game due to a foul in the lane and was out with 2:06 left in the contest.

In the second half, Bucknell scored the first four points before Lafayette came back to lead 34-32 with 15:38 remaining. The Raiders responded with eight straight points on back-to-back 3-pointers by Linebaugh and Bill Kern’s lay-up, and never looked back. Bucknell led by as many as 10 points on four occasions before the Leopards made one final attempt to pull the game out.

Colgate held a two-point advantage with three seconds left, before icing the contest on a pair of free throws by Dave Hardy with his only two points of the contest.

Also in double figures for the Raiders was Mike Farrell with 13 points, and Justin DeBerry and Andrew Pleick with 10 apiece.

Colgate opened the contest with a seven-point run behind Blue’s opening basket and five straight points from Campolieta. Campolieta scored 17 of the Raiders’ first 21 points including 13 straight after Blue’s opening basket.

Lafayette came back to tie the contest 17-17 on Burke’s 3-pointer. The Leopards moved in front by three points, 26-23, before Colgate’s Keith Williams tied the contest at halftime with a 3-pointer at the buzzer.

In the second half, Colgate scored the first four points before Lafayette came back to lead 34-32 with 15:38 remaining. The Raiders responded with eight straight points on back-to-back 3-pointers by Linebaugh and Bill Kern’s lay-up, and never looked back. Bucknell led by as many as 10 points on four occasions before the Leopards made one final attempt to pull the game out.

Colgate held a 68-61 lead with 1:31 left after Kern’s two free throws, but a technical foul on the Raiders for six fouls on the court gave Lafayette two points on a pair of free throws by Burke. On the ensuing possession for the Leopards, Farrell made a lay-up to cut the lead to three points, 68-65.

Campolieta made one of two free throws to put Colgate back up by four points, before Pleick hit a lay-up to cut it to 69-67 with 52 seconds remaining. Lafayette got the ball back with 14 seconds left after Linebaugh’s shot was blocked but Burke missed a 3-point attempt and Hardy grabbed the rebound with three seconds left and fouled.

BINGHAMTON, N.Y. – Sophomore Mark Linebaugh scored a season-high 21 points, including the 500th point of his career, to lead Colgate to a 62-58 win over Binghamton in the final non-conference game of the season for the Raiders.

Colgate posts its second straight win, while Binghamton, which has never defeated the Raiders in four outings, suffered its second straight setback.

Also in double figures for Colgate were Pat Campolieta with 13 and Dave Hardy with 10. Jeffrey Daws led the Bearcats with 13, while Mike Wright and Andrew Hannan had 10 apiece.

Campolieta became the fifth player in Patriot League history to rank in the Top 10 in scoring and rebounding, and the first player league history with 1,500 points, 600 rebounds and 175 steals.

Colgate jumped out to a 10-point lead, 12-2, in the first half on five points each from Linebaugh and Howard Blue.

Binghamton came back to go ahead 18-17 on Wright’s jumper with 4:24 left. The Bearcats still held a one-point advantage over the Raiders with 2:30 remaining, 23-22, before Colgate scored seven straight points en route to a 29-26 halftime lead.

In the second half, Colgate opened an 11-point lead twice before the Bearcats clawed their way back to a one-point deficit, 56-55, with 52 seconds left.

Campolieta hit four straight free throws before Binghamton’s Hannan nailed a 3-pointer with 12 seconds left to bring the home team to within two points, 60-58.

The Raiders iced the game on a pair of free throws by Hardy with 10 seconds remaining.

Campolieta and Linebaugh led Colgate in rebounding with six apiece, while Martin Marek had five off the bench. Colgate shot 47 percent from the field, compared to a cold 34 percent by Binghamton.
