Colgate University “Red Raiders”
(3-11-3, 2-4-0 ECAC/T-9th)

vs.
 Mercyhurst “Lakers”
(7-4-2, 7-0-1 MAAC/2nd)

Starr Rink (2,246) ● January 6, 2001 ● Hamilton, N.Y.

Senior captain Cory Murphy became the 42nd player in Colgate history to eclipse the 100-point mark with two points against Yale on Dec. 2nd. He is 40th on the Red Raiders’ all-time scoring list (26-75-101). Murphy leads the Red Raiders in scoring this season with 19 points (5-14-19) and has six multiple-point games this year.

The Red Raiders will resume ECAC action next weekend when they hit the road once again at Dartmouth and Vermont on Jan. 12-13.

It will mark the 13th and 14th road contests in the first 20 games this season for Colgate. The Red Raiders will look to record their second consecutive ECAC victory with a win against Dartmouth.

Colgate looks for further improvement returning to Starr Rink against Mercyhurst

After a 19-day layoff the Colgate University men’s ice hockey team showed strong improvement at the Silverado Shootout despite a loss and a tie at the Holiday tournament.

“I thought we played very well. When you are in the situation that we are looking for the “W”, you have to pull the positives out of games like this,” Vaughan said. “Considering the layoff, I thought that we are looking for the “W”, you have to pull the positives out of games like this,” Vaughan said. “Considering the layoff, I thought these were two of our best efforts this season.”

Colgate regained the services of Mike O’Malley and Sam Sturgis at the Silverado and are hoping to see the return of senior winger Kevin Johns who has missed nine of the last 10 games to injury.

Sturgis paid immediate dividends for the Red Raiders scoring the game-tying goal against Silverado host Minnesota-Duluth.

While dealing with significant injuries, Colgate has also had to deal with the grind of being away from home in 12 of its first 17 games this season. The game against Mercyhurst will be just the sixth game in Starr Rink this season for the Red Raiders. The Lakers will be entering Starr after a tough battle with Army on Friday night, while the Red Raiders will be well-rested in their second half debut at home.

Mercyhurst is a strong squad in the MAAC holding second-place entering the second half of the season. The Lakers boast a strong defense which leads the MAAC with a 1.77 goals against average led by junior goaltender Peter Aubry with a 7-3-2 record and 1.53 GAA.

Things won’t get any easier for Colgate after the Mercyhurst game as the Red Raiders open the second half of ECAC play with three tough road trips to Dartmouth and Vermont next weekend and an always tough visit to Lynah Rink for the ECAC/Empire Sports Game of the Week against Cornell televised live on Jan. 18. The Red Raiders posted two shutouts of the Big Red last season and an always tough visit to Lynah Rink for the ECAC/Empire Sports Game of the Week against Cornell.

REVIEWS LAST WEEKEND

Game #17 Duluth, Minn. (Colgate 2, Minnesota-Duluth 2)

The Red Raiders followed a strong effort despite a 2-0 shutout against Western Michigan with a 2-2 comeback tie against tournament host Minnesota-Duluth.

Trailing 2-0 after the first period, Colgate controlled the remainder of the game outshooting the Bulldogs in the second and third periods. Sean Nolan recorded his 12th of the season to cut the lead to 2-1 at the end of the second period. Then in a homecoming for Minnesota native Sam Sturgis, the senior forward recorded his first goal of the season and third of the year to tie the game at 7:45 of the third.

1st period - 1, UMD, Nate Anderson 11 (Beau Geisler, Derek Derow) 10:58. 2, UMD, Matt Mathias 1 (Mark Gunderson) 04:26. Penalties - Chad MacDonald, CU (ROUGHING) 14:28.

2nd period - 3, CU, Sean Nolan 12 (Chad MacDonald) 09:45. Penalties - NONE

3rd period - 4, CU, Sam Sturgis 1 12:35. Penalties - Sean Nolan, CU (INTERFERENCE) 19:10; Nate Anderson, UMD (ROUGHING) 08:45; Nate Anderson, UMD (10-MINUTE MISCONDUCT) 08:45; Kyle Doyle, CU (ROUGHING) 02:54; Chad MacDonald, CU (ROUGHING) 02:54; Chad MacDonald, CU (ROUGHING) 02:54; Ryan Coole, UMD (ROUGHING) 02:54; Ryan Homstrom, UMD (ROUGHING) 02:54; Matt Mathias, UMD (R0) 02:54.

OT period - NONE Penalties - NONE. Shots on goal - CU 28; UMD 28.

Game #16 Duluth, Minn. (#7 Western Michigan 2, Colgate 0)

The No. 7-ranked Western Michigan University men’s ice hockey team posted a 2-0 shutout against Colgate University in the first round of the Silverado Shootout held in front of a crowd of 3,049 fans at the Duluth Entertainment and Convention Center.

The Broncos (13-3-2) recorded their second shutout of the season behind a 30-save performance from goaltender Jeff Reynaert, who was in the pipes for both WMU blankings. Western Michigan took a 1-0 lead early in the first period on Mike Bishai’s 11th marker of the season from Steve Rymsha and Reynaert at 2:52. Bishai took a pass from Rymsha in the Colgate zone at the right face-off circle and took advantage of a screened Colgate goalie David Cann and found the net over Cann’s shoulder on the stick side.

Despite the loss, Colgate (3-11-2) controlled most of the game outshooting the Broncos 30-22, while holding the advantage in face-offs and hits, which was a pleasant sight for Colgate head coach Don Vaughan.

After a scoreless second frame, Western Michigan added an insurance goal at 14:39 of the third period on Jeff Campbell’s 14th of the season which trickled past Cann on the near post glove side.

The Broncos entered the game averaging 4.7 goals a game, but the Red Raiders posted a strong defensive effort limiting WMU to under three goals for just the fifth time in 17 games this season.

“I thought we did a good job of shutting them down and allowed just one odd man rush," Vaughan added. “I was pleased with the effort and we can’t feel sorry for ourselves. We are winning a lot of the statistical categories, but we aren’t winning the one that counts and that’s on the scoreboard.”
