Scouting the Bears

Friday’s game will be the first regular-season contest of the season for Brown, who defeated Concordia (Que.), 5-4, in an exhibition game on Friday, Oct. 28. Sophomore Jeff Prough led the way for the Bears with two goals and two assists for four points. Junior Sean Dersck added two goals and one assist, while freshman Eric Slais and sophomore Sean Hurley each added two assists. Junior Brian Lahycek, Brown’s leading scorer from last season with 23 points on 12 goals and 11 assists, did not suit up for the game.

Sophomore Adam D’Alba played the first 36:03 in goal. He made 13 saves on 15 shots before making way for senior Kevin Kliman, who made nine saves on 11 shots.

Special teams were key in the exhibition game, as Concordia scored three of its four goals on the power play, and Brown scored four of its five goals with the man advantage. The Bears were 4-for-7 on the power play (.571) and 3-for-6 on the penalty kill (.500).

The Last Time Out

Colgate earned its second straight win, and its second home win of the season, with a 3-1 victory against Bentley on Saturday, Oct. 29. It marked the first-ever meeting between the two teams.

Senior Jon Smyth and sophomore Tyler Burton each scored a power-play goal in the first period to give the Raiders an early 2-0 lead. Bentley scored early in the second period, but senior Eric Main netted an insurance goal with 1:40 left in the second period.

Sophomore goaltender Justin Kowalkoski made 19 saves on 20 shots to earn a win in his first career game. Junior defenseman Mike Campaner assisted on all three Raider goals to earn a spot on the ECACHL Weekly Honor Roll.

Road Warriors

Colgate clinches the back on the bus this weekend after stopping in Starr Rink on Saturday. The team played three of their last four games on the road. The Raiders’ next four games are all away from Hamilton as they open the league schedule at Brown and Yale this weekend, and then at Dartmouth and Harvard next weekend.

After playing away from home for seven of their first nine games, the Raiders will enjoy a much-deserved home stand starting Nov. 18. Colgate will play six straight games at Starr Rink, including a two-game series against CCHA foe Western Michigan the weekend after Thanksgiving.

Poll Position

Colgate’s 3-1 win against Bentley garnered the team a few more votes in the USCHO.com,CSTV media poll, but the coaches appeared to be unimpressed, as the Raiders received no votes in the USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine poll. In the USCHO poll, Colgate is tops among the teams in the “also receiving votes” category with 66, just four points behind league-mate St. Lawrence, who is ranked 20th. Friday night’s opponent, Brown, is receiving two votes in the USCHO poll.

Colgate is one of nine ECAC Hockey League schools receiving votes in the USCHO poll. Three - Cornell, Harvard and St. Lawrence - rank among the top 20. Colgate is the only team ranked in the top 15 in the USA Today poll; Harvard, Dartmouth and St. Lawrence are all receiving votes from the coaches.

Captain’s Blog

Senior captain Jon Smyth is keeping an online blog in which he is sharing his experiences as a Division I student-athlete at a top liberal arts college. Smyth is very active on Colgate’s campus: in addition to serving as captain of the hockey team, the political science major is a resident advisor in one of Colgate's residence halls and is the co-president of Colgate’s Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC). Smyth’s blog can be accessed through Colgate’s official athletics website, www.goColgateRaiders.com, or through the university’s website, www.colgate.edu.

Kowalkoski Gets Win In First Career Start

Sophomore goaltender Justin Kowalkoski earned a win in his first collegiate game and first career start against Bentley on Saturday, Oct. 29. Kowalkoski made 19 saves on 20 shots, including stopping nine shots in the second period.

As a collegian, Kowalkoski now owns a 1.00 goals against average and a .950 save percentage. His only other previous action in a Raider uniform was during an exhibition game against Ottawa last season. In that contest, he played 31 minutes and made 10 saves without allowing a goal.

ECACHL Recent Results
ECAC Hockey League teams earned a total of 12 victories last weekend, including Colgate’s 3-1 win versus Bentley. Of the five teams that played two game series against the same team, two came away with sweeps: Clarkson got a pair of wins against Wayne State, and Quinnipiac beat Robert Morris twice. St. Lawrence split with RIT, losing 3-2 the first night before recording a 6-3 win on Saturday. Cornell and Princeton each earned wins on Friday against Michigan State and Notre Dame, respectively, before losing to those teams on Saturday.

The conference season officially got underway as Dartmouth visited Harvard. The Crimson, who are ranked 15th in the latest USCHO.com poll, earned a 6-2 win against the Big Green to take a very early lead in the league points race.

Cornell’s Matt Moulson was honored as the ECACHL Player of the Week after he scored five points in the split with Michigan State. Union’s Kris Mayotte was the Goaltender of the Week, and Clarkson’s Shea Guthrie was the Rookie of the Week.

Campaner Contributes from the Blue Line
Junior Mike Campaner has quickly become Colgate’s top-scoring defenseman for the second straight season.

Campaner assisted on all three Raider goals in Saturday’s game against Bentley to tie his career high and earn a spot on the ECAC Hockey League Weekly Honor Roll. It marked the fifth time in his career that Campaner recorded three or more points, and it was his third multiple-point game of the season. He now has 10 multi-point games for his career.

Campaner enjoyed his second multiple-point game of the season in Colgate’s win against Army. His first goal of the year, which came 13:21 into the first period, was a short-handed tally and also proved to be the game-winner. It was the first game-winning goal of his career, and his first short-handed goal since his freshman season.

Campaner’s first multiple-point game of the season came when he assisted on back-to-back goals in the second period versus UMass-Lowell. Colgate is now 21-3-3 when Campaner records a point.

Through five games, he leads the Raiders’ blueliners and is tied for second on the team with seven points on one goal and six assists. Campaner ranks fifth in the nation and leads the league in points per game by a defenseman with a 1.40 average, and he is tied for second in the ECACHL in points by a defenseman. Last season, he paced Colgate’s defensemen in scoring with 19 points on four goals and 15 assists.

Wilson Enjoyes an Offensive October
Senior Kyle Wilson capped off the month of October with an assist on Colgate’s third goal against Bentley, giving him 10 points for the season on six goals and four helpers. With the assist, Wilson extended his career-long scoring streak to seven games, including the last two contests of the 2004-05 season. During that streak, he has recorded 12 points on six goals and six assists.

Wilson recorded his first career hat trick with three straight goals against Army on Oct. 21. He “hit for the cycle,” netting one of each type of goal: even-strength, short-handed and power-play. He also assisted on Colgate’s second goal, which was the team’s first short-handed goal of the season.

For his efforts, he was honored as the ECAC Hockey League and USCHO ECACHL Player of the Week.

In addition to his four points against Army, Wilson had a multiple-point game in the season-opener against UMass-Lowell with two goals and one assist.

Winchester Starts Season On A Roll
Sophomore Jesse Winchester has scored at least one point in each of the first five games of the season, giving him a career-long point streak. Winchester is tied for fourth on the team in scoring with three goals and three assists for six points.

Winchester scored the game-winning goal and added an assist in the season-opener against UMass-Lowell. He followed that up by netting the game-tying goal in the 2-2 tie with the Lakers, and registered an assist on Colgate’s extra-attacker goal in the Saturday game. Winchester scored Colgate’s first goal in the 6-1 win against Army, and assisted on the game-winning goal versus Bentley.

Junior Marc Fulton enjoyed a four-game point streak to kick off the campaign, starting with a...

Ryan Racks Up Assists Against Army

Senior Ryan Smyth recorded a career-high four assists against Army, including contributing the primary assist on each goal of Kyle Wilson's natural hat trick. It marked the first time in his career that he has posted more than two points in a game, and it is just the fifth multiple-point game of his career. Smyth also had two assists against Umass-Lowell, and he is tied for the team lead with six assists on the year. During his career, Colgate is 16-3-2 when he gets on the scoresheet.

Odd-Man In

Special teams have played a key role in Colgate's first five games of the season. The Raiders' power play (7-for-26, 26.9 percent) ranks ninth in the country and fourth in the league. Colgate's combined special teams boasts a 59.7 percent success rate, and ranks fifth in the nation and second in the conference.

The Raiders continued to prove the importance of special teams play in their 3-1 win against Bentley. Both of Colgate's goals in the first period came on the power play, giving the team a 50 percent conversion rate for the opening session and a 33.3 percent success rate for the game. Six of the Raiders' nine first-period shots came during power-play opportunities.

In Colgate's win against Army, three of the Raiders' goals were scored during odd-man situations, including one power-play goal and the team's first two short-handed goals of the season. Junior Mike Campaner netted a shorty 13:21 into the first period against the Black Knights, and senior Kyle Wilson added a short-handed tally and his third power-play goal of the season in the second period to complete a natural hat trick. In addition, the only goal Colgate allowed the Black Knights to score came during a power play with 33 seconds left in the second period.

Colgate's first road weekend, a two-game series against Lake Superior State, was all about special teams play. With the teams combining for 79 penalty minutes over the two games, seven of the nine goals came in odd-man situations, including six power-play scores.

The teams started the weekend by exchanging power-play goals in the first period of Friday's game. For Wilson, it marked his second power-play goal of the year. The last two goals of the game were scored in five-on-five situations.

On Saturday, all five goals came when the sides were uneven. Junior Marc Fulton scored his first power-play goal of the year to put Colgate up 1-0, but LSSU capitalized on a power-play chance in each of the three periods to take a 3-1 lead. Then, with 1:05 to play in regulation, senior captain Jon Smyth scored a six-on-five goal with netminder Mark Dekanich on the bench to pull Colgate to within one, 3-2.

Both parts of Colgate's special teams made a difference in the Raiders' season-opening win against Umass-Lowell. Colgate's penalty-killing unit shut down five UML power plays, including three in the first period, and allowed just five shots when playing with a man down. The Raiders converted two of their five power-play attempts against the River Hawks for a .400 success rate, with goals coming from sophomore Jesse Winchester and Wilson. For the game, Colgate took nine shots when playing with an extra man.

Dekanich Making His Mark

Sophomore goaltender Mark Dekanich has proven himself worthy of the starting role with outstanding performances in his first four games of the season. He earned a spot on each of the first three ECAC Hockey League Weekly Honor Rolls.

Dekanich put on a show in Colgate’s home-opener against Umass-Lowell. He turned aside all 14 shots in the first period, and made 20 saves through two scoreless periods. The first River Hawk goal he allowed occurred after he was knocked out of position by his own defensemen, while the second goal came on a redirected shot. Dekanich finished his season debut with 32 saves and his second career victory. For his efforts, he was named USCHO's ECACHL co-Goaltender of the Week.

Dekanich made 53 saves in a pair of games against Lake Superior State during Colgate’s first road weekend. He helped keep the games close as the Lakers outshot Colgate 58-40 on the weekend, including taking 29 shots on goal during power-play opportunities.

Dekanich allowed a season-low one goal against Army. He turned aside 21 of 22 Black Knight shots, and the only puck that got past him was during a power play with Colgate firmly in control of the game, up 6-0.

For the season, Dekanich owns a 1.97 goals-against average and .930 save percentage, both of which rank second in the ECACHL. Five of the eight goals he has allowed this season have been power-play scores.

Raiders Dominate in Faceoff Circle

Colgate continued its season-long domination in the faceoff circle against Bentley, winning 36 of the 56 draws taken in the game. Senior Kyle Wilson led the way with 14 wins on 18 attempts, while sophomore Ben Camper won 11 of his 16 draws in his first game back from injury.

Through the first five games of the season, Colgate has won 188 of its 320 faceoffs for a 58.7 percent success rate. Leading the way at the dot is sophomore Tyler Burton, who has won 70 of his 114 draws for a 61.4 win percentage. Wilson is close behind him in second with 59 wins on 97 attempts for a 60.8 success rate.

In the three games he has played in, freshman Tom Riley has also proven himself adept at taking draws. He has won 19 of his 32 puck-drops for a 59.4 win percentage.

Rookies Get on the Scoresheet

Freshman defenseman Nick St. Pierre became the first Colgate rookie to record his first career point when he assisted on the eventual game-winning goal in the season-opener against Umass-Lowell. For his efforts, St. Pierre was named to the ECAC Hockey League Honor Roll.
on Oct. 10. Later in the game, classmate Jason Fredricks earned his first collegiate point when he assisted on Kyle Wilson’s power-play goal in the third period.

St. Pierre picked up another assist in Colgate’s second game against Lake Superior State. He was one of six skaters on the ice for the Raiders as the team was trying to come back from a 3-1 deficit late in the game. St. Pierre took a pass from sophomore Jesse Winchester and fired from the left point. His shot was tipped into the net by senior captain Jon Smyth to make it a one-goal game.

Colgate in the National Rankings

As a team, Colgate ranks in the top 10 in the national Division I statistics in several categories. The Raiders’ defense, one of the trademarks of the program, ranks seventh in the country with an average of 1.80 goals allowed per game. Colgate is beating its opponents by an average of 2.00 goals per game, placing the team in a three-way tie for fifth place in scoring margin.

Colgate’s special teams play ranks among the best in the nation. Its power play ranks ninth with a 25.9 percent success rate, and its combined special teams ranks fifth in the country at 59.7 percent.

Outside of the top 10, Colgate ranks 11th in scoring offense with a 3.80 goals per game average, and is 39th in penalty minutes with an average of 19.4 minutes per game. The Raiders’ penalty kill is tied for 21st with an 85.7 success rate (30-of-35). With its 70.0 winning percentage, Colgate is tied for 13th in the nation in that category.

In addition to the team rankings, several Raiders rank in the national top 20 in individual statistics:

Commendations for Colgate’s Captain

For the second straight season, senior captain Jon Smyth was named to both the coaches and media preseason all-ECAC Hockey League teams, the league announced on Sept. 20. In addition, Smyth was named to Inside College Hockey’s “Dream Team” on Sept. 27. INCH’s “Dream Team” was comprised of the nation’s best players in their various roles. Smyth, for instance, was placed on the second forward line and top power-play line with Colorado College’s Brett Sterling and Michigan’s Andrew Ebbett.

On Oct. 7, U.S. College Hockey Online announced its preseason All-America teams. Smyth added to his preseason accolades by becoming an honorable mention selection.

Last season, Smyth was named to both the ECACHL and USCHO preseason teams.

Raiders Flashback: March 11-12, 2005

Colgate finished the 2004-05 regular season with an overall record of 22-9-3, a third-place finish in the ECACHL and a bye for the first round of the league playoffs. The Raiders waited through the opening weekend of the tournament that determined which team they would host at Starr Rink the following weekend.

That opponent turned out to be Brown, which was good news for the Raiders, as the Bears have only won three times at Starr Rink in their 26 previous games there. It was the first-ever postseason meeting between the two teams.

In the first game, the two teams battled through a hard-fought, defensive first period, with neither team able to find the back of the net. The second period, however, saw both teams begin to take advantage of special teams opportunities, with Brown leading off the scoring with a power play goal eight minutes into the period. Adam Mitchell tied the game up five minutes later with a power play goal of his own, and four minutes after that Jon Smyth gave Colgate a 2-1 lead, with an even-strength score. Brown had very few opportunities in the third period, as Colgate allowed just two shots while piling on two more power-play goals to take a 4-1 win.

The second game of the series was very similar to the first, with Colgate dominating the play throughout the game. As in the first game, neither team was able to get on the scoreboard in the first period. But in the second period, the Raiders capitalized on a 5-on-3 situation with a goal by Tony Masotto seven minutes into the period. Colgate added two more goals in the game, both of which were assisted by Masotto, giving him a three-point night. Colgate’s defense held through the entire game, with Steve Silverthorn earning his eighth career shutout with 19 saves in the 3-0 victory. With the win, the Raiders completed a four-game season sweep of the Bears for the first time in series history.

Colgate went on to win the consolation game of the ECACHL tournament and earn a bid to the NCAA tournament’s Midwest Regional in Grand Rapids, Mich.

Bumps and Bruises

Junior right wing Dustin Gillanders will miss the entire season due to an injury.

Junior Marc Fulton recorded his first career four-point game to lead No. 18 Colgate to a 6-2 victory against 16th-ranked UMass-Lowell. The win marked Colgate’s first win against UML since 1997.

Mark Dekanich earned the win in net with 32 saves, including 20 through two scoreless periods. The Raiders dominated in the faceoff circle, winning 46 draws to Lowell’s 28. Freshman Tom Riley won eight of his nine attempts, and sophomore Tyler Burton won 17 of his 23 draws.

Fulton opened the game’s scoring. Senior Ryan Smyth beat his defender outside the zone and centered the puck to Fulton. Fulton one-timed it in from the far side under goalie Peter Vetri’s blocker.

CU’s second goal came after Smyth won the puck out of the corner and centered it to Fulton, who was waiting in the slot. Fulton went five-hole on Vetri to make it 2-0 in favor of the Raiders.

Freshman Nick St. Pierre earned his first career point with an assist on CU’s third goal, which was a power-play score by Jesse Winchester. St. Pierre passed the puck out of the corner to Winchester, whose initial shot was saved. He got his own rebound and put the puck over the goalie’s blocker.

Winchester was also credited with an assist, giving him his first career multiple-point game.

Lowell got on the board 52 seconds later. Dekanich was knocked out of position by one of his own defenders. Mark Pandolfo came from behind the net and put the puck over his blocker.

Wilson scored Colgate’s sixth goal 14:58 into the final period on a power play. Wilson came around from the side of the net and put the puck over Vetri’s shoulder. Freshman Jason Fredricks was credited with his first career assist on the play.

The final goal of the night came when UML’s Jeremy Hall redirected a shot by Kim Brandvold. Vreti’s shoulder. Freshman Joe Verdi’s shoulder. Freshman

All five goals were scored in odd-man situations at Lake Superior State recorded a 3-2 win over the No. 16 Colgate hockey team on Saturday, Oct. 15, at Abel Arena.

Dominic Osman appeared to play the game out of reach when he buried his own rebound at the 16:52 mark of the third period. On the initial shot, Raider goaltender Mark Dekanich looked behind him, giving Osman the opportunity to pick up the puck and put it in the net glove-side.

However, the Raiders pulled Dekanich and took advantage of the extra skater. Sophomore Jesse Winchester passed the puck from the right side to freshman Nick St. Pierre, waiting at the left point. St. Pierre fired, and the puck was tipped by senior captain Jon Smyth as it went by Lake Superior State goalie Jeff Jakaitis.

The Raiders pulled Dekanich again, looking for the equalizer, but a delay-of-game penalty by sophomore Tyler Burton served to neutralize the would-be advantage.

Colgate was the first to get on the board 4:26 into the game. Senior Kyle Wilson and junior Marc Fulton passed the puck back and forth between the area behind the right side of the net and the right faceoff circle. Fulton eventually took one of Wilson’s passes and fired the puck over Jakaitis’ left shoulder.

LSSU tied it up midway through the opening session. The Lakers were cycling the puck on the power play. Mark Adamek passed to Derek A. Smith at the left point, who sent it over to Jeff Rainville at the right point, and Rainville fired a long shot past Dekanich.

Lake Superior State capitalized on another power play opportunity 3:13 into the second period. A shot by Marty Gurnoe created a scrum in front of Dekanich. The puck came loose to Dominic Osman, and he clanged it off the leftipe. It rebounded behind Dekanich to Nathan Ward who was waiting on the right side, and he banged it home.

Colgate edged LSSU in the faceoff circle, 36-29, with Burton winning 16 of his 26 draws.

GAME 3
Lake Superior St. 3 #16 Colgate 2
Saturday, October 15, 2005
Senior Kyle Wilson recorded his first career hat trick and added an assist to lead Colgate to a 6-1 win against Army on Friday, Oct. 21, at Tate Rink.

Wilson “hit for the cycle,” scoring an even-strength goal late in the first period, then adding a short-handed goal and power-play tally to start the second. It marked the fifth multiple-goal game of his career, and he tied his personal-best with four points. Wilson also extended his career-long scoring streak to six games, dating back to last season.

Jesse Winchester got things started with his third goal of the season 7:45 into the first period. Winchester was looking to make a pass across the crease to a teammate, but the puck hit the skate of an Army player instead and deflected into the net.

Colgate got its first short-handed tally of the year at 13:21 mark. Wilson took a heads-up pass from goaltender Mark Dekanich before he hit the blue line, and skated into the zone with Mike Campaner trailing. Wilson spun in place to shake his defender, and sent a cross-ice pass to Campaner, who beat Army goalie Brad Roberts. Dekanich’s assist was the first of his career.

The Raiders made it 3-0 4:35 later. Roberts made a save on the initial shot by Ryan Smyth, but then lost track of the puck. Wilson found it to the left of the crease and slipped it past Roberts for his fourth goal of the year.

Wilson completed his hat trick with Colgate’s first two goals of the second period. He netted his short-handed tally 5:36 into the session, and scored on the power play at the eight-minute mark. Ryan Smyth assisted on both goals. He finished the game with a career-high four helpers.

Tyler Burton scored his second goal of the season with 9:20 left in the second period. Campaner passed the left point, and sent a cross-ice pass to Winchester, who was streaking down the ice along the right boards. Winchester’s heads-up pass gave Burton a pass from the penalty box to create a 2-on-1 opportunity for the Raiders. Wilson slipped the puck to Main, and he got just enough of his stick on it to score five-hole on Kearney.

Colgate outshot Bentley 31-20 on the night. Kearney finished with 28 saves, including stopping 13 of 14 Raider shots in the second period. Colgate dominated in the faceoff circle, winning 36 of 56 draws. Wilson led the way, taking the puck on 14 of his 18 faceoff attempts.

Sophomore goaltender Justin Kowalkoski made 19 saves on 20 shots to lead Colgate to a 3-1 win against Bentley in his first career start on Saturday, Oct. 29, at Starr Rink.

Senior captain Jon Smyth opened the scoring 1:47 into the first period. Junior Mike Campaner and sophomore Tyler Burton broke out of the zone, with Burton on the left side. Burton put the puck on the tape of Smyth’s stick, and he skated it into the zone from the red line. Smyth’s shot came from the top of the left faceoff circle and beat Bentley freshman goalie Jason Kearney glove-side, just under the crossbar.

Burton scored his third goal of the season with just under seven minutes left in the opening period. Campaner and sophomore Jesse Winchester took the puck out with Burton on the right-wing boards. Winchester’s heads-up pass gave Burton a breakaway, and he wrested a shot under Kearney’s blocker.

Bentley got on the board 4:31 into the second. Jeff Gumaer stole the puck from a Colgate defenseman, and dropped a pass from the corner to Anthony Canzoneri. Canzoneri immediately passed to Prewitt who was alone in front of the goal, and he buried the puck low on Kowalkoski’s glove side from the top of the crease.

Senior defenseman Eric Main netted his first goal of the season with 1:40 left in the second period to put the Raiders up 3-1. Campaner blocked a shot from the point, picked up the puck along the boards, and passed to senior Kyle Wilson who was streaking down the ice along the right boards. Main joined the play from the penalty box to create a 2-on-1 opportunity for the Raiders. Wilson slipped the puck to Main, and he got just enough of his stick on it to score five-hole on Kearney.

Colgate outshot Bentley 31-20 on the night. Kearney finished with 28 saves, including stopping 13 of 14 Raider shots in the second period. Colgate dominated in the faceoff circle, winning 36 of 56 draws. Wilson led the way, taking the puck on 14 of his 18 faceoff attempts.
