Colgate Returns to East Coast for ECAC Classic After Split in the Lobo Invitational

The Red Raiders return to the east coast after splitting its games in the University of New Mexico Hampton Inn Lobo Invitational over Labor Day weekend.

Colgate was narrowly defeated in the opening game of the Invitational by Colorado College, 1-0. The Red Raiders hit the crossbar twice in the second half, but just couldn’t capitalize on its opportunities.

Following the opening round loss, Colgate bounced back with a strong 2-0 victory against host New Mexico on Sept. 3. Sena Maziarz (Suffield, Conn.) scored the game-winning goal with her second marker of the season at 50:15.

Lauren Erickson (North Beach, N.J.) recorded her first goal of the year to give the Red Raiders a two-goal advantage at 64:13 with an assist from Kellie Gale (Endwell, N.Y.).

Colgate has certainly found a capable replacement for 1999 Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year goalkeeper Kelly Tyrrell in sophomore goalkeeper Jen Molina (Methuen, Mass.). Molina has two shutouts in three games this season with a 3-0 blanking of Vermont with five saves and recorded 14 saves in the shutout of New Mexico. She has all three starts in goal this season and holds a 0.33 GAA, 26 saves and a .963 save percentage.

Colgate was favored to win seventh Patriot League Title:
The Red Raiders were picked to finish first in the 2000 Patriot League preseason poll. Colgate is in pursuit of its seventh straight title and 10th overall.

Colgate Dynasty Continues to Grow:
Colgate has forged a dynasty in the 18-year history of its women’s soccer program winning nine of the 10 Patriot League Championships, including the last six, and has appeared in three straight NCAA Division I Women’s Soccer Tournaments.

The Colgate Staff:
Colgate head coach Kathy Brawn (Ramp, ’88) enters her 10th season at Colgate and has an overall record of (121-50-13). Assistant coach and former Red Raider Jen Hughes (Colgate, ’97) enters her first season behind the bench, she ranks second CU’s all-time goals (40), assists (26) and scoring lists (106). Maureen Smyth and Tim Amass are the athletic trainers.
