Colgate (14-9, 5-5) Begins Three-Game Road Trip
Raiders Travel To Navy (10-15, 5-5) Wed. Night

THE MATCHUP

The Colgate University basketball team (14-9 overall, 5-5 Patriot League) will embark upon a three-game road swing on Wednesday night, when the Raiders travel to Annapolis, Maryland for a Patriot League showdown with the Midshipmen of Navy (10-15, 5-5). Tip-off is 7:30 p.m. at Alumni Hall.

Following the Navy clash, Colgate will travel to Bucknell and Army before returning home for the regular season finale against Lafayette.

The Raiders have won five of their last six games including a dramatic 58-55 win over Holy Cross on Saturday to complete a season-sweep over the Crusaders. Colgate is currently tied for fifth place in the Patriot League standings just two games behind first place American University.

Navy snapped a three-game skid on Saturday with a 66-61 win over Lehigh.

This is the 30th meeting between Colgate and Navy with the Midshipmen leading the overall series, 19-10. Earlier this season, the Mids defeated the Raiders, 95-93 in overtime, at Cotterell Court. Navy has won 11 straight against Colgate including five straight at Alumni Hall.

Sophomore Mark Linebaugh, who has a career-best 309 points this season, has been Colgate’s leading scorer in the last five outings. During the stretch he is averaging 19.6 points per game while shooting .592 percent.

WILLIAMS NAMED PATRIOT LEAGUE ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Colgate freshman Keith Williams (Harlem, N.Y.) has been named the Patriot League Rookie of the Week for his performance in the Raiders’ victories over Lehigh and Holy Cross.

He is just the fourth player to win the award this season. The 6-foot-4, 172-pound swingman scored the game-winning basket in Colgate’s 58-55 victory over Holy Cross. With 4.9 seconds remaining, Williams nailed a 3-pointer from the corner to give Colgate a 56-55 lead.

Earlier in the week, Williams grabbed a season-high six rebounds in the victory over Lehigh.

from the field and 46 percent from behind the arc. Linebaugh is currently 8th in Patriot League scoring with 13.4 points per game and needs nine points to reach 600 in his career.

Senior Pat Campolieta, the first player in school history to rank in the Top 10 in career scoring (1,548), rebounding (655), assists (230) and steals (177), continues to lead Colgate in scoring and rebounding. He is averaging 15.0 points per game and 6.9 caroms per outing, which is good for fourth place in Patriot League scoring and second in rebounding.

Campolieta is currently fifth in career scoring and eighth in rebounding for the Raiders.

Linebaugh is second in scoring, while Howard Blue is third with 10.8 points per game. Tim Sullivan is averaging 8.6 ppg and Dave Hardy 8.1 ppg.

Jehiel Lewis is Navy's leading scorer with 12.7 points per game followed closely by Jason Jeampierre with 11.1. They are followed in the scoring column by Francis Ebong (9.7). The Mids' leading rebounder is Ebong with 6.8 caroms per outing.

RADIO COVERAGE
Station WKXZ (93.9/99.3 FM), Norwich, N.Y., will carry the Colgate-Navy game live from Alumni Hall. All radio broadcasts can also be heard on the Internet at http://athletics.colgate.edu

STATS OF THE GAME
The Colgate Raiders need one more win to clinch their first winning season since 1994-95 campaign when they finished 17-13 under coach Jack Bruen. Colgate's current total of 14 wins equals the most under fourth-year head coach Emmett Davis. The Raiders were 14-14 in Davis' first season.

THE SERIES
This is the 30th meeting between Colgate and Navy with the Midshipmen leading the overall series, 19-10. Earlier this season, the Mids defeated the Raiders, 95-93 in overtime, at Cotterell Court. Navy has won 11 straight against Colgate including five straight at Alumni Hall.

LAST TIME VS. NAVY
(Hamilton, N.Y. - Jan. 19, 2002) - Demond Shepard hit two free throws with six seconds remaining in overtime to lift Navy to a 95-93 Patriot League victory over Colgate at Cotterell Court.

The Raiders sent the game into overtime when Mark Linebaugh spun in the lane and hit a 12-footer to tie the score with 13 seconds remaining in regulation. On the ensuing Navy possession Linebaugh took a charge, giving the Raiders one final attempt to win but Dave Hardy's shot at the buzzer missed.

In overtime, Linebaugh tied the contest 93-93 with 17 seconds remaining before Shepard was fouled under the basket setting the stage for the winning

Colgate's Last Outing

(Hamilton, N.Y. - Feb. 9, 2002) - Freshman Keith Williams hit a three point-er from the corner with five seconds remaining to lift Colgate to a 58-55 win over Holy Cross in a Patriot League contest.

Holy Cross had an opportunity with four seconds left to regain the lead, but the inbounds pass was deflected by Pat Campolieta and intercepted by Colgate's Mark Linebaugh, who was immediately fouled by Pat Whearty. Linebaugh hit both free throw attempts to ice the game. He led the Raiders with 19 points.

Martin Marek scored all 13 of his points in the first half and grabbed five rebounds for Colgate. Tim Szatko led the Crusaders with 17 points and nine rebounds.

Colgate Head Coach

Colgate head coach Emmett Davis is in his fourth season with the Raiders. He has posted an overall mark of 54-54. His .54 victories is the second highest total by a Colgate coach in the first four years with the Raiders. Davis is 0-8 against Navy.

Syracuse, N.Y. -- Kueth Duany scored a game-high 17 points and Preston Linebaugh added 14 as the undefeated and nationally-ranked Syracuse Orangemen defeated Colgate, 70-51, at the Carrier Dome.

Syracuse has been the victor in the last 36 meetings between these Upstate New York foes with the Orangemen leading the overall series, 109-46.

Colgate was paced by Tim Sullivan. Martin Marek and Dave Hardy with eight points apiece and Pat Campolieta with seven points before fouling out with 6:32 left in the game.

Sophomore Mark Linebaugh tallied five points in the game, while grabbing six rebounds, dishing out three assists and making four steals.

Colgate opened the game with a six-point run before Syracuse scored its first basket three minutes into the contest. SU came back to take its first lead, 11-10, with 13:22 remaining on Jeremy McNeill's dunk.

The Raiders' final lead came with 10:42 left in the first half, when they held a one-point advantage, 16-15, after Linebaugh nailed a three-pointer.

Syracuse pushed out to a 12-point lead before Colgate cut the deficit to eight points at halftime, 32-24.

In the second half, the Orange maintained the lead to 12 points, but Colgate came roaring back to within five points, 40-35, on Howard Blue's 3-pointer with 14:15 remaining. Blue finished with five points and six rebounds.

Syracuse then took control with a 20-4 run for a 21-point lead with 6:32 left. The closest Colgate came was 16 points on Matt Shirley's dunk with 4:16 remaining.

ITHACA, N.Y. -- Pat Campolieta 17 points and Howard Blue came off the bench to score 15 to lead Colgate to a 68-55 win over Cornell at Newman Arena.

It was the fifth straight year that the visiting has won in this rivalry between these two Upstate New York schools.

The Raiders, off to their best start since 1993-94 season, have won nine of the last 11 games played in the series.

Also in double figures for the Raiders were Martin Marek with 16 points and Tim Sullivan with 10.

The Big Red held an early 7-2 lead though, and Campolieta ran off eight straight points as the Raiders rolled to a 21-point lead with 6:32 left. The Raiders hit 15-of-18 free throws down the stretch in the second half, preventing a Yale come-back.

Ime Archibong scored a game-high 17 points and Preston Linebaugh with 14 points for the Raiders, while grabbing six rebounds, dishing out three assists and making four steals.

Colgate opened the game with a six-point run before Syracuse scored its first basket three minutes into the contest. SU came back to take its first lead, 11-10, with 13:22 remaining on Jeremy McNeill's dunk.

The Raiders' final lead came with 10:42 left in the first half, when they held a one-point advantage, 16-15, after Linebaugh nailed a three-pointer.

Syracuse pushed out to a 12-point lead before Colgate cut the deficit to eight points at halftime, 32-24.

In the second half, the Orange maintained the lead to 12 points, but Colgate came roaring back to within five points, 40-35, on Howard Blue's 3-pointer with 14:15 remaining. Blue finished with five points and six rebounds.

Syracuse then took control with a 20-4 run for a 21-point lead with 6:32 left. The closest Colgate came was 16 points on Matt Shirley's dunk with 4:16 remaining.

HAMILTON, N.Y. -- Senior Pat Campolieta’s second double-double of the season led five Colgate players in double figures as the Raiders rolled over Yale, 87-75, in a non-conference game at Cotterell Court last Monday night.

Campolieta scored 22 points and grabbed 10 rebounds for the Raiders (4-2), who are off to their best start since the 1992-93 season.

Howard Blue came off the bench to add 19 points while Mark Linebaugh scored 15 including 12-of-15 from the free throw line. Colgate point guard Dave Hardy added 12, including his 500th collegiate point on four-of-five shooting from behind the arc, while Martin Marek contributed 10.

Colgate shot 50% from the field, while Yale managed only 39.7 percent.

Ime Archibong scored a game-high 23 points for the Bulldogs (4-4).

Colgate led by as many as 14 points in the first half, but a late Yale run cut the lead to 44-41 going into the break. The Raiders hit 15-of-18 free throws down the stretch in the second half, preventing a Yale comeback.

Yale had taken its first lead since the three-minute mark of the first half when Archibong completed a three-point play, giving the Bulldogs a 47-46 advantage with 17:04 remaining in the game.

The Raiders answered back, though, and Campolieta ran off eight straight points to push Colgate back into double digits.

HAMILTON, N.Y. – Pat Campolieta scored a game-high 22 points and grabbed seven rebounds to lead Colgate to a 73-65 win over Dartmouth at Cotterell Court.

The victory was Colgate's fifth straight win, giving the Raiders their best start since the 1971-72 campaign.

Also in double figures for Colgate were Martin Marek and Howard Blue with 12 apiece and Mark Linebaugh with 11.

Campolieta's 22-point effort moved him into eighth place on the school's all-time scoring list with 1,352 points. He was 4-of-9 from the field and 14-of-15 from the charity stripe.

Flinder Boyd led Dartmouth with 16 points and Charles Harris added 11 points for the Big Green.

Colgate held an 11-8 lead in the first half before Dartmouth strung together three straight 3-pointers for a 17-11 advantage with 11:08 left in the half. The Big Green was on top at halftime, 30-27.

In the second half, Colgate came out scoring the first seven points to take the lead 34-30 on a conventional three-point play by Campolieta and a pair of baskets by Linebaugh. The Big Green came back to take a two-point advantage, 38-36, before Colgate went on a 11-3 run for a 47-41 lead which they never relinquished.

Dartmouth was able to cut Colgate's six-point advantage to two points with 13:06 left but the Raiders scored 13 of the next 16 points to ice the contest. Marek tallied seven points during the run.

Colgate increased its advantage to as many as 14 points down the stretch on two occasions. The Raiders outrebounded Dartmouth 42-26 paced by Campolieta and Tim Sullivan with seven apiece.

Turnovers: Colgate 17, Notre Dame 9. Technical fouls: None. Attendance: 11,418.

SOUTH BEND, IN – Freshman guard Chris Thomas scored a career-high 28 points to lead Notre Dame to a 92-61 win over Colgate at the Joyce Center.

Thomas made 6-of-8 3-pointers as the Irish connected on 11-of-18 from behind the arc. Also in double figures for Notre Dame were Ryan Humphrey with 21 points followed by Matt Carroll with 14 and David Graves with 13.

The Raiders, who saw their five-game winning streak come to an end, were paced by Tim Sullivan with 17 points – all in the first half, while Mark Linebaugh netted 16. Colgate was ice-cold over the first 10 minutes of the contest falling behind 19-4 with 11:51 left. The Raiders’ first basket didn’t come until the 11:39 mark on Howard Blue’s layup.

Blue’s layup started an 11-5 run for the Raiders as they cut the Irish lead to 10 points, 25-15. Notre Dame scored the next four points, but Sullivan answered back with eight straight points as Colgate moved to within six, 29-23, with 4:21 remaining.

The Raiders were trailing by four points in the final minute of the first half, before Graves’ jumper gave the Irish a six-point lead at halftime, 37-31.

In the second half, the Raiders couldn’t buy a basket as Notre Dame tallied the first 10 points to open a 47-31 advantage. Colgate would get it back to a 11-point deficit but that would be as close as they came to the Irish.

Blue finished with four points and eight rebounds for the Raiders, while Josh Humphrey tallied five points and grabbed a career-high six rebounds. Martin Marek scored seven points, and Sullivan finished with six rebounds.

VESTAL, N.Y. -- Sophomore Mark Linebaugh scored a season-high 21 points, including the 500th point of his career, to lead Colgate to a 62-58 win over Binghamton in the final non-conference game of the season for the Raiders.

Colgate posts its second straight win, while Binghamton, which has never defeated the Raiders in outings, suffered its second straight setback.

Also in double figures for Colgate were Pat Campolieta and Linebaugh with 13, while Mike Wright and Andrew Hardy had 10 apiece.

Campolieta became the fifth player in Patriot League history to rank in the Top 10 in scoring and rebounding, and the first player in league history with 1,500 points, 600 rebounds and 175 steals.

Colgate jumped out to a 10-point lead, 12-2, in the first half on five points each from Linebaugh and Howard Blue. Binghamton came back to go ahead 18-17 on Wright’s jumper with 4:24 left. The Bears still held a one-point advantage over the Raiders with 2:30 remaining, 23-22, before Colgate scored seven straight points en route to a 29-26 halftime lead.

In the second half, Colgate opened an 11-point lead twice before the Bears clawed their way back to a one-point deficit, 56-55, with 52 seconds left. Campolieta hit four straight free throws before Binghamton’s Hannan nailed a 3-pointer with 32 seconds left to bring the home team to within two points, 60-58. The Raiders iced the game on a pair of free throws by Hardy with 10 seconds remaining.

Campolieta and Linebaugh led Colgate in rebounding with six apiece, while Chris Spatola had five off the bench. Colgate shot 47 percent from the field, compared to a cold 34 percent by Binghamton.

HAMILTON, N.Y. -- Mark Linebaugh equaled a career-high 27 points and grabbed seven rebounds as Colgate downed Army, 82-72, in a Patriot League game at Cotterell Court.

The Raiders extended their winning streak to four straight over the Cadets, who have suffered 15 straight losses on Colgate’s home court.

Pat Campolieta recorded his fifth double-double of the season netting 21 points and eight rebounds, while freshman Keith Bender added 18 points and nine rebounds, while Chris Spatola chipped in 19.

Army led the Raiders in the first half, 23-22, before Colgate put together a six-point spurt and never looked back. The Raiders extended their lead to as many as 12 before settling for a 46-37 halftime advantage. In the second half, the closest Army came was seven points, 77-70, with 50 seconds left.

Colgate shot a blistering 55 percent from the field (27-of-49), while Army made 46 percent on 28-of-60.

The Raiders dominated the glass outrebounding Army 38-24.

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- Glenn Stokes scored 19 points and Steven Miles added 18 points and nine rebounds to lead American University to a 72-58 Patriot League win over Colgate at Bender Arena.

The Eagles snapped Colgate’s three-game winning streak as they maintain their hold on first place in the Patriot League.

Other American players in double figures were Patrick Doctor and Vladimir Buscaglia with 10 points apiece. The Eagles shot 55 percent from the field including a blistering 54 percent from behind the arc as they hit on 8-of-15 3-pointers led by Miles with four.

Mark Linebaugh led Colgate with 17 points, while freshman Keith Williams tallied a career-high 10 points. Pat Campolieta and Howard Blue had nine points each for the Raiders.

Colgate held an early 16-10 lead, but with Campolieta, Linebaugh and Dave Hardy on the bench with two fouls apiece, the Eagles closed out the first half with a 23-8 run for a 33-24 advantage.

In the second half, the closest Colgate came was five points with 17:32 remaining, 37-32.

Foul trouble continued to hurt the Raiders as Blue fouled out with 8:05 remaining after picking up all five fouls in the second half. Blue was Colgate’s leading rebounder with eight.

HAMILTON, N.Y.— Howard Blue and Mark Linebaugh scored 14 points apiece as Colgate rolled to an 84-52 win over Lehigh in a Patriot League contest at Cotterell Court.

The victory was the Raiders’ 11 straight over the Mountain Hawks on Colgate’s home court.

Pat Campolieta added 12 points and a game-high nine rebounds to the Colgate attack and Dave Hardy chipped in 11 points. Matt Logie led the Mountain Hawks with 11 points.

In the first half, Colgate was leading 13-11 with 13:49 remaining before going on a six-point run to take control of the contest. The Raiders extended their advantage to 13 points before settling for a 38-26 halftime lead.

Colgate led by as many as 34 points late in the game after the Raiders emptied the bench with over five minutes remaining.

Lehigh shot only 37 percent from the field, while Colgate hit on 49 percent. The Raiders were 23-of-31 from the charity stripe, while the Mountain Hawks made only 15-of-27 for 55 percent.

Colgate outrebounded Lehigh 40-33 led by Campolieta while Blue and Keith Williams added six apiece. For Williams it was a career-high.

HAMILTON, N.Y.— Freshman Keith Williams hit a three pointer from the corner with five seconds remaining to lift Colgate to a 58-55 win over Holy Cross in a Patriot League contest.

Holy Cross had an opportunity with four seconds left to regain the lead, but the inbounds pass was deflected by Pat Campolieta and intercepted by Colgate’s Mark Linebaugh, who was immediately fouled by Pat Whearty. Linebaugh hit both free throw attempts to ice the game. He led the Raiders with 19 points.

Martin Marek scored all 13 of his points in the first half and grabbed five rebounds for Colgate. Tim Szatko led the Crusaders with 17 points and nine rebounds.

Ryan Serravalle added 12 points for Holy Cross, who outrebounded the Raiders, 33-22, but committed 14 turnovers to Colgate’s nine.

Colgate held a 31-24 halftime advantage, before the Crusaders came back to tie the contest, 38-38, with 11:14 remaining. After each team scored a basket, Colgate went back in front 44-40 and never trailed until Whearty put the Crusaders ahead 54-53 with 44 seconds left. Whearty added a free throw with 42 seconds remaining to set the stage for Williams’ shot from the corner.
